Otto Rivera is a Certified Financial Planner and member of the Financial Planning Association. The Certified Financial Planner™, CFP®, and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification: no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold the CFP® certification. You may find more information about the CFP® certification at www.CFP.net. It is recognized in the United States and other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. CFP® Professionals are held to a fiduciary standard which requires them to act in their clients’ best interests. Currently, more than 98,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

CFP® professionals have met CFP Board’s high standards for education, examination, experience, and ethics. To become a CFP® professional, an individual must fulfill the following requirements:

Education – Complete college or university-level coursework through a CFP Board Registered Program and become well-versed in these major financial planning areas: Professional Conduct and Regulation, General Principles of Financial Planning, Risk Management and Insurance Planning, Investment Planning, Tax Planning, Retirement Savings and Income Planning, Estate Planning, Psychology of Financial Planning and Financial Plan Development.

Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The CFP® exam is a 170-question, multiple-choice test addressing areas included in the Principal Knowledge Topics listed above. The test consists of two 3-hour sections which include stand-alone questions, short scenario questions and case studies designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances.

Experience – Complete at least 6,000 hours of financial planning-related experience.

Ethics – Commit to the CFP Board to act as a fiduciary, submit to a detailed background check, and agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct which include an expanded scope of the fiduciary duty standard for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following continuing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including 2 hours on the Code of Ethics and 28 hours on other parts of the Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct in order to introduce or review the competencies and knowledge that enhances the performance of CFP® professionals.

Ethics – Complete a pre-approved 2-hour CFP Board Ethics program that is specific to CFP® Certification.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to the CFP Board’s enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.
